LX. An Account of a double Child, communicated to the Right Honourable the Lord Willoughby, of Parham, F. R. S. by Thomas Percival Eſquire.

My Lord,

Read Feb. 20, 1752. ABOUT three weeks ago was born a remarkable child at Hebus near Middleton. I preſume ſomebody or other will ſend the Royal Society an account of it; but, leſt that ſhould not be ſoon done, be pleaſed to accept the incloſed, given me by a neighbouring ſurgeon. I have not myſelf ſeen it, being confined to my room with the gout, but am well aſſured it is exact, having ſhewn it to many, who have, and who all agree it to be right. am, my Lord,

Your Lordſhip's moſt devoted,

Feb. 10, 1752.

Tho. Percival.
